Executive Director
New York Labor Health Care Alliance
Albany, New York

Stephen J. O'Sick is the executive director of the New York Labor Health Care Alliance (NYLHCA), a coalition of over 70 union-sponsored health funds that collectively serve more than 200,000 individuals. In this role, he is responsible for the day-to-day operations of the organization. Additionally, Steve serves as the director and chair of the product development committee for the National Labor Alliance. He is also a member of the Labor Advisory Board for the Capital District Physicians' Health Plan and a union trustee for the Roofers Local #241 health, pension, annuity, and training funds. Before taking on the role of executive director, Steve was the fund administrator for the Bricklayers & Allied Craftworkers Local #2NY Pension, Annuity, and Health & Welfare Benefit Funds for 17 years. He has been a member of the Bricklayers & Allied Craftworkers Local Union #2NY for 28 years and graduated from the BAC Local #2NY Joint Apprentice School in 1994. Steve has previously served as the Chair of the Administrators Committee for the International Foundation of Employee Benefit Plans and has completed two terms on the International Foundation's Board of Directors. He frequently speaks, serves as a panelist, and moderates sessions at the International Foundation and other educational conferences. Steve also holds the Certified Employee Benefit Specialist® (CEBS®) designation.
